

^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

Berner Zirkel für Sprachwissenschaft

Vortrag vom 08. Oktober 2014

Unitobler, Lerchenweg 36, 3012 Bern

18:15 h, Raum F005

Philosophisch-historische Fakultät

Departement für Sprach- und
Literaturwissenschaften I

Institut für Sprachwissenschaft

Multidisciplinary Approaches for a Deeper Understanding of the Ethnolinguistic Pre-history of Northeast India

Professor Manjil Hazarika, Mekelle University

Abstract

Manjil Hazarika teaches Archaeology and Heritage Management at the Department of Heritage Conservation, Institute of Paleoenvironment and Heritage Conservation, Mekelle University, Ethiopia. He served at the Indian Archaeological Society, New Delhi as Research Associate during 2010-2013. He has submitted his PhD dissertation under the Himalayan Languages Project of the Institut für Sprachwissenschaft, Universität Bern, Switzerland. He earned his Graduation in Anthropology from Cotton College, Guwahati and Post-Graduation in Ancient Indian History, Culture and Archaeology from Deccan College, Post-Graduate and Research Institute, Pune. He has completed an International Master in Quaternary and Prehistory from the Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Tarragona, Spain under the Erasmus Mundus Master Program financed by the European Union and a Post Graduate Diploma in Heritage Management and Tourism from the Tilak Maharashtra University, Pune. He is the recipient of Prof. H.D. Sankalia Memorial Gold Medal Award, Prof. S.N. Rajaguru Geoarchaeology Cash Prize Award, Late Shri Katragadda Subbaiah Cash Prize Award and Pandit Hemchandra Goswami Memorial Award. He has published a number of research papers in reputed journals and other publications and also presented several papers at different conferences held in China, Czech Republic, Ethiopia, France, Ireland, the Netherlands, Switzerland, USA and India. He is a life member of several academic bodies like Indian Society for Prehistoric and Quaternary Studies (ISPQS), Indian Archaeological Society (IAS), North East India History Association (NEIHA), and Palaeo Research Society (PRS).